ST. James's, October 7. The following Addreſſes have been preſented to His Majeſty.

An humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen of the Grand-Jury at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at the Caſtle of Winton for the County of Southampton; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Abſence of his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

An humble Addreſs of the Arch-biſhop, Dean and Chapter of Canterbury; preſented to his Majeſty (in the Abſence of his Grace the Archbiſhop) by the Reverend the Dean of Canterbury, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Glamorgan, aſſembled at the Grand Seſſions held for the ſaid County; preſented to his Majeſty by Mr. Wright and Serjeant Whitaker his Majeſty's Juſtices of the ſaid Grand Seſſions, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Gentlemen, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Penryn in the County of Cornwall; preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, in the Abſence of the Right Honourable Hugh Boſcawen, Eſq; Comptroller of his Majeſty's Houſhold.

Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Ratisbon, October 3. On the 30th paſt the College of Princes took into Conſideration the Requeſt of the Dukes of Saxe-Weymar and Eyſenach, concerning the Sums which they and their Countries have diſburſed on extraordinary Occaſions, and which they deſired might be paſſed in Accompt as part of the Contributions which they were to pay to the Empire; and it was reſolved, that theſe and all other Pretentions of the like Nature, ſhould be produced and examined here by the Dyet, in order to be allowed. The Miniſter of Treves, whoſe Maſter is alſo Biſhop of Spire, has diſtributed an Anſwer here, in the Name of the Biſhop and Chapter, to the Complaints lately made by the Proteſtants of that Town againſt the Proceedings of the Roman Catholicks.

Hambourg, October 8. Letters from the Confederate Army before Stralſund, dated the 6th Inſtant, adviſe, that on the 5th an Account was brought that the Tranſport Ships were provided with every thing that was neceſſary for imbarking the Cavalry, and that thoſe Tranſports would ſoon be at Gripſwald, in order to the Enterprize on Rugen. On the 6th 40 of the Pruſſian Cannon were expected in the Camp, and the reſt in a Week or 10 Days. Letters from Stockholm of the 3d paſt relate, that Diſpatches from Stralſund had brought repeated Orders from the King of Sweden to proceed to the coyning of a Million of Copper Pieces, about the bigneſs of an Engliſh Farthing, which are to be current in Sweden for Half a Rix Dollar: Yet as that King's Directions do ſtill need ſome Explanation, ſo that the Bank at Stockholm, to whom the Order touching this Affair is given, will be oblig'd to write to know his Majeſty's further Pleaſure in ſome Particulars, it will be ſome time before they begin to Coin thoſe Pieces. Theſe Letters add, that the Duties at all the Ports of the Kingdom, except Stockholm and Gottenburgh, are now farmed; and that the Farmers who are different at each Place, are by their Contracts left at Liberty to accept of what Duties of Importation and Exportation they think fit, provided they do not exceed what has hitherto been eſtabliſhed.

Bruſſels, October 8. The ordinary Deputies of the States of the Province of Flanders, who brought hither the Act for the Subſidy to commence on the firſt of the next Month, went back on the 5th Inſtant, after having obtained from the Regency the Act of Acceptation of the ſame, and their Anſwers to the Conditions on which it was granted. Count Konigſeck has ſent to Vienna the Repreſentation made by the Province of Flanders againſt giving up any Part of that Country to the States General by way of Extention of Limits: The ſaid Count having received ſome Days ago an Expreſs from Vienna with Diſpatches relating to the Barrier-Treaty, ſent them forward to Baron Heems at the Hague.

Weſtminſter, October 6. This Day the Parliament met, and further adjourned until Thurſday the 20th Inſtant.

Whitehall, October 7. His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint George Dodington, Eſq; Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Somerſet: He this Day in Council took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, October 7. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable Frederick Hamilton, Eſq; to be Lieutenant General of his Forces.

Whereas one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State hath received a Letter ſigned G. E. and dated the 4th of October Inſtant, promiſing to make ſome Diſcoveries; if therefore the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will come to the ſaid Secretary's Houſe on Monday Morning next between 9 and 10, and make out what he promiſes, he ſhall receive all fitting Protection and Encouragement.
